Group Sing Is Slated Next Tuesday

Contrary to the announcement in yesterday's Spartan Daily, the Community Sing, sponsored by the Kappa Phi club, will be held in the Little Theater next Tuesday instead of today as was reported.

The singing, an innovation which will be on trial next Tuesday, will be led by Miss Berta Gray, sponsor of the Omega chapter of the Kappa Phi club, and publications office secretary, who has had experience as a recreational leader for several campus organizations.

Modeling the program after the currently popular radio Community Sings, the songs will be given in quick succession with no dull waits between numbers. Miss Gray states, and adds that a special surprise number may be given during the hour. The words of the songs will be flashed on a screen.

All students who are free from 11 to 12 Tuesday are invited to attend.

Craziest Garbs Win Jinx Prizes

If you can coax father out of his red flannel underwear just long enough to take yourself off to the A.W.S. Jinx or even tease a growth of manly beard on your feminine visage, so much the better will be your chance of winning a costume prize at the Crazy-Night frolic to be held Friday night in the women's gym.

Following the grand march when all the crazy-costumed participants will file past the judges of the evening, four prizes will be awarded. One prize will go to the craziest couple, one prize to the most original couple, and a prize respectively to the craziest and most original individual.

GALS ONLY

In reply to a general opinion which has been running rampant about the campus proclaiming a "couple" to be a team made up of two opposite genders, members of the A.W.S. council declared that the Crazy-Night Jinx is exclusively a women's affair, and that the prize winning couples aforementioned will be feminine couples.

Novel entertainment by talented members of the Associated Women Students will be presented to the frolicers, and games and dancing will add to the evening's fun. An all-girls' popular orchestra will furnish the music.

EATS TOO

Jack-o-lanterns and corn-stalks will create a Halloween atmosphere, and cider and doughnuts will be served as refreshments.

All women students are urged to attend the Jinx in a crazy costume of any kind, according to Frances Simpson, general chairman of the affair.

20% Of Quota In Chest Drive Still To Be Met

$2229 Contributed By Faculty Members;
Students $78.03

With a total of $2307 contributed, the campus Community Chest last night lacked only $568, 20 per cent, of meeting its quota for this year.

Most of the money taken in thus far, reports from the offices of President T. W. MacQuarrie and Controller Neil Thomas indicate, was given by members of the college faculty. The amount coming from this source was $2229, according to figures released yesterday from the president's office.

2½ CENTS PER STUDENT
Students, up to four o'clock yesterday afternoon had turned in only $78.03, an amount equal to about 2½ cents for each member of the student body.

It has been asked by President MacQuarrie that each student contribute at least 10 cents.

"There are very few students on the campus who do not spend more than that amount for things they do not need," commented Alice Wilson, member of the student council, when the plans of the Chest drive were laid before that body last week.

MACQUARRIE REQUESTS

Explaining his request that each student contribute at least 10 cents, President MacQuarrie said:

"The Community Chest seems to me the best way of handling this charity fund drive business. You will have to meet the situation when you go out to take your places in the different communities where you will work. It might be well to become acquainted with it now."

K. P. Group Holds Election At Party

Meeting last week, the Kindergarten primary group elected Lois De Shields for their president. Other officers elected were Barbara Franklin, vice-president; Rosalie Mossman, secretary-treasurer. Decorations were carried out in the autumn theme. The entertainment for the evening consisted of group games and charades.

During the latter part of the evening songs were sung by the group and the evening was concluded by the serving of refreshments.

Faculty sponsors of the affair were Miss Emily DeVore, Miss Mabel Crumby, Mrs. Lillian Gray, and Mrs. Elizabeth Walsh.

Prexy In Del Monte

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, president of San Jose State college, left yesterday morning for Del Monte where he will attend a three-day convention of California school superintendents.

FLASH!!

STOCKTON, CALIF., OCT. 25. Four Spartan leather slingers advanced into the semi-finals of the Sciots Pyramid Belt tourney, tonight while three others dropped out of the running.

Captain Bob Harris continued toward the 153 pound championship with a decision over Buck Moor of Mountain View. Joe Seitz defeated Italo Podesto by a technical knockout in the 165 pound division, and George Latka took the nod over the favorite, Montana Wilson of Fresno, in the 135 pound class.

In the 124 pound class, James Bodame lost by a technical knockout to Vick Saucedo in the third round. Anthony Pisano dropped a decision to Felix of Pittsburg. Fada Booker, San Jose Bears, decided James Kincaid, 140 pounds, and Bill Molden, former State boxer proved too much for Karl Drexel. Ringsiders agreed this to be the best fight of the evening.

Band Praised By Marine Director

"Best college band I have ever heard."

That was the praise tendered by Chief Marine Gunner Horace Talbot, director of the Marine band, after the San Jose State college band performed at the San Jose-San Diego State football game last Saturday in San Diego.

ADMIT SUPREMACY

Paying tribute, the Marine band acknowledged the supremacy of San Jose State's band by sounding chords at different intervals when it did something outstanding, said Thomas Eagan, director of the San Jose State college band.

"Our band far outstripped anything which performed at the game last Saturday and to my knowledge it ranks equal to any other band on the coast," declared Frank Brayton, editor of the Spartan Daily, who covered the football contest for his paper.

SEND REMEMBRANCE

The Marine band, according to Mr. Eagan, expressed a wish to forward, in the near future, a remembrance to the band.

The Marine band anticipates a visit to the San Jose State music department, and, according to Mr. Eagan, there is a vague possibility of their giving a concert.

Sigma Tau Initiates Four New Members

Marjorie Serio, Mrs. Grace Petitioner, Georgianna Kann and Josephine Monnot were initiated into Sigma Tau, honorary art society, at a formal initiation and dinner held at the Hotel De Anza Thursday evening.

Elizabeth Jarvis, president; Bobbie Sweet, vice-president; Doris Smith, secretary-treasurer, are the officers of the society. Miss Estella Hoisholt, adviser, and Miss Susan Byrne of the faculty, were present.

Vote Today To Pick Queen For Jr.-Soph Dance

Melzer Announces New Contest As Heels
Flee Campus

After a steady exodus of students, following announcement this week that the biggest heels on the campus would be pointed out by popular vote today, had threatened to depopulate Washington Square, it was decided in an emergency meeting of the student council at midnight last night that students will vote for queen of the Junior-Soph dance.

Blonde, brunette, or redhead—who is the sweetheart of Washington Square?

That will be the question which will actually be decided at the penny-a-vote election which will get under way in front of Morris Dailey auditorium today.

"You can vote for anyone—or everyone, if your coppers hold out," Uncle Benny chortled gleefully.

Final choice of the biggest thrill on the campus will be made tomorrow when the lobby in front of Morris Dailey auditorium is expected to be the scene of a hot contest between 11 and 1 o'clock.

Ranking even higher than the campus redheads, both the queen and her escort will be admitted without charge to the dance. In fact they will be brought to the affair in a special car to be sent by the student council, and will be seated on the carnival throne by none other than Uncle Benny Melzer.

Senior Sprawl Is Scheduled Nov. 5

Seniors will meet Thursday evening, November 5, from 6 to 10 in a big warm-up splurge at Alum Rock.

Combining an evening of dancing, dinner, and general getting-acquainted, this first-quarter sprawl is being chairmaned by Paul Becker, assisted by Dorothy Sandkuhle, food committee; Bill Thurlow, entertainment; and Marion Starr, publicity.

Tickets will feature both dinner and dancing or either one separately. Dinner will be 25 cents and dancing 15 cents.

Students Requested To Get Uncalled For Letters From Co-op

The following students are requested to call for their mail in the Information office within two days. If the students fail to call, the mail will be sent to the dead letter office.

There is mail for Miss Doris Johnson, Clara Kuck, Alice Nicoll, Ben Patten, Virginia Phillips, W. C. Reimund, Oliver L. Tanquary, and John White.

Cheer Sought In Contest By Board

Lack of a football game this week does not mean that the rally committee is inactive, for announcement of a contest or drive for a new school yell was made yesterday by Cal Sides, rally committee chairman.

Feeling that the yells already used by the students were insufficient to support the growing need for bigger and better rooting sections, the committee has instigated this drive to round up some original material.

ENDS FRIDAY

The contest will start tomorrow at 8 o'clock in the morning and continue until 4 o'clock Friday night. A special box is to be placed in the corridors in front of the Morris Dailey auditorium to be used exclusively for that purpose.

A silver loving cup will be given to the student or group of students who makes the winning entry. Upon presentation of the

Correspondence Club Begun Here

A local chapter of the International Students Society, a club for correspondence in foreign languages, is being formed at San Jose State under the direction of Raymond Wallace, he revealed yesterday.

Members are given the names of correspondents in foreign countries and are provided with special blanks for sending their own names abroad. The society has a membership of many thousands in over seventy-five countries, and correspondence is possible in English, French, German, and Spanish, with a possibility that other languages will shortly be added.

Dues are ten cents per year, and membership cards, pins, and special club stationery are to be had at small extra cost. When the membership reaches twenty-five, a charter will be issued by the home office of the society, located in Vancouver, Wash.

Language majors and minors are particularly urged to join, as well as others interested in corresponding with foreign countries. The society has a large library of travel films which are available to local chapters.

Silver Tea Thursday

The Bibliophile Silver Tea for the Community Chest fund will be held Thursday afternoon from three to four in Room 120.

Gertrude Larsen and Christina Porter have charge of the arrangements for this affair, which is a presentation of the library majors club. They have invited all library majors and minors to attend.

Granting Of Teaching Credentials In Speech Correction Possibility

The anticipated visit here tomorrow of Mrs. Mabel Gifford, head of the California state department of speech correction, and Mrs. Evelyn Clement, head of the division of teacher certification is expected to open the way for granting of teaching credentials in speech correction, it was said yesterday by President T. W. MacQuarrie.

Local Birds Shown In Science Seminar Movies Yesterday

Blackbirds, a whole flock of them, fighting a red-tailed hawk furnished an exciting moment in a series of five reels of motion pictures of birds of the Santa Clara valley presented in the science seminar yesterday afternoon by Mr. John Price, instructor in zoology.

Mudswallows building their peculiar strongholds from saliva and clay was another feature of the program attracting general interest.

Five reels in all were shown. Three reels were in natural color.

Plays To Be Entirely Student Acted And Directed

Opening the drama season at State, four one-act plays entirely student acted and directed will be presented Thursday night free of charge in the Little Theater.

A fantasy comedy, "Spring", is next on the program, directed by Diane Wood. A light piece, the play develops on the theme of a poetically inclined sailor whose literary masterpieces are praised by a girl he meets. Romance develops and the pair finally pool their resources to enter a dance hall.

Henry Puckett and Lavelle Smith play the sailor and the girl. At this point in the program a difficult southern dialect play, directed by Bill Gordon, will be offered. "The Last of the Low-ries" is the title of this Carolina folk tragedy which relates the story of the last living male in a feuding family.

CERTAIN DEATH

He returns to his home to see his aging mother, knowing that certain death awaits him. Harry Cesari, Lorraine Callendar, Etta Green, and Marian Hushbeck make up the cast of this drama.

"Grandma Pulls The Strings", a comedy in which a deaf grandmother induces a bashful young man to propose to her granddaughter, will conclude the program.

Directed by Bill Gordon, the cast of this comedy consists of Mary Helen Bussey, Helen Meek, Florence Murdock, Marion Peterson, and Vivian Wood. Bill Gordon will act the part of the young man as well as direct the play.

Graduate Employed In Pioneer Speech Work Of Education Project

"Going into homes and helping people who are trying to learn English is a pioneer field in speech work," according to Miss Helen Aihara, Japanese graduate of San Jose State College.

Miss Aihara is now employed by the Federal Education project in Santa Clara County under the direction of Mr. Harold McChesney. The new plan in speech work is to go into the homes of people who either do not know the English language, or wish to improve their knowledge of it and to give these people instruction. Miss Aihara specializes speech correction and dialect.

While at State, Miss Aihara was a member of Black Masque, the YWCA, and the Japanese Students' Club. Graduating in June, she received her junior high credential with a major in speech.

A dainty collar and a huge pendant at the neckline gave a finishing touch to the gown. And also featured on this number was a slit back that is so popular . . . and devastating when you dance. Just strolling down FIRST st. across from Hales the other day, when lo and behold! we spotted a whole window-full of the new glorious "scotch and soda" dresses that practically knocked us cold on our feet. And now the "scotch and soda" dresses that Sibby's are featuring have solved the problem. One adorable one was of the very new COMBINATION of black dress with fitted top and swing skirt trimmed in rich blue around the skirt and neckline. They are being featured at 7.95 and 12.95.

State Cross Country Team In Underdog Role

Sport Spotlight by DICK EDMONDS

AS WAS feared by many State football fans, the Spartans suffered a terrific let down after the ultra-tough opening assignments undertaken by DeGroot's gridders.

Had the local eleven been able to start the season in a sane manner with a couple of "breathers" and then one tough game, I have a hunch that the score in San Diego would have been drastically different.

STARTING OFF with the San Francisco Dons, then meeting State's arch-rivals from Stockton, the C.O.P. Bengals, and in the next game tackling the national recognition bound Santa Clara Broncos, proved too much of a hurdle for the aspiring Spartans and they were far below their game in the San Diego conflict.

The U.S.F. Dons ran into a similar set of circumstances when they fell prey to the Gonzaga Bulldogs Sunday in Spokane after reaching their peak the week before when they battled the vaunted St. Mary's Gaels to a scoreless tie on the Kezar stadium turf.

COACH CHARLIE Walker, genial soccer and water polo mentor, enjoyed his best week-end in several years this week when both of his teams came through with hard-fought victories.

On Friday evening his water sprites dumped a tough Menlo Junior college "seven" and on Saturday morning his shin-kickers pounded out an excellent win over the Stanford Indians, a victory particularly delectable to Walker's "toughies".

Martin Olavarri's work in the center forward spot was one of the big factors in the shin-abraser's win. His talented toe accounted for the winning goal and his clever kicking put the ball in play near the Redskin goal many times during the grueling contest in which 11 stalwarts played its entirety. The work of Karl Drexel, of the basketball-playing Drexels in the goal cage was a revelation as time and again he ward off serious threats by snappy retrieving.

Meet At Berkeley Saturday To Test Pasture-Invasers

Californians Prove Strength In Meet With San Mateo

San Jose State's crack first year and rapidly improving cross country team, which only a week ago surprised the San Mateo Junior Collegians on the peninsula course, will face their second test of the year when they meet the powerful Golden Bears from the University of California at Berkeley Saturday.

The Spartan runners will enter a meet for the second time this season as decided underdogs to one of the best Golden Bear cross country teams ever to represent the Berkeley institution.

BEARS STRONG

That the Golden Bears are strong and victory bound is proved by the words of Coach Brutus Hamilton:

"While lacking individual stars, the Bear team is one of the best we have ever had," said the noted track authority—builder of decathlon champions and mentor of the Bears. "As a unit, the team is very strong and able to run up a good score."

California's cross country team verified his pre-season statement as they crushed their baby brothers from the University of California at Los Angeles by taking all but two of the first ten places in their first conference meet of the year on the Berkeley course.

TROUNCE UCLANS

Coach Hamilton's runners repeated the route of last fall when five California runners crossed the finish before a Uclan runner was even in sight.

Prospects for a Spartan victory, upset or utter rout are as yet in the dark. A few of the eligibility rules are to be ironed out before Coach "Tiny" Hartranft can mould together a representative team.

BAKER STARS

Word from Berkeley is that Bob Baker, Bear distance man is the class of the California varsity runners. Baker led the field to the tape in the Uclan meet in the time of 18 minutes and 42 seconds for the three-mile course. He was followed closely by Bob Hall and Charles Mehlert.

The remaining members of the California team include Leslie Voorhies, Charles Shields and Bob Heavy of California mile fame.

Meeting Tuesday night, October 27, at home of Mildred Warburton, 23 So. 5th street at 7:30. Guest night. Please bring a guest interested in becoming a member.

Tournament must be present to-night at 7 o'clock, Rundle said. Partners for the mixed doubles tournament will be chosen at that time in order that matches may be started this week.

Spartan Varsity Gets Much-Earned Rest This Week

Gridders Journey To Arcata For Tilt With Humboldt

Tired from the long San Diego trip, but only slightly dejected from the 14-6 defeat suffered at the hands of the Aztecs, the Spartan varsity gridders, sobros and all, have settled down again in preparation for the last half of the current season.

Coach Dud DeGroot's men will take it easy this week and recuperate from the lengthy ride, but next week practice sessions will be stiff leading up to the Humboldt State affair at Arcata. The forthcoming week-end will be the first and only lull in the San Jose football schedule, with the Santa Clara-Auburn contest taking the limelight in this part of the state.

LETDOWN

A decided let-down following the recent Bronco game, and the tiresome journey to the southern city were the main factors that attributed to the dismal first-half display on the part of the local players.

According to DeGroot, the Spartans demonstrated good football for only about five minutes of the entire game, and during that time, they drove straight down the field for their lone score. Another spurt was stopped with an intercepted pass, and from then on all Spartan threats were nipped in the budding stage.

LOCALS DEAD

The strong undefeated San Diego Aztecs started out with a rush in the opening minutes, and although held for downs on their first serious threat, they came back to score on a fluke fumble and an eight yard run. But throughout the entire first half, the locals seemed dead on their feet and were forced to be on the defensive for most of the time, as is shown by the fact that they gained only four yards net.

Flashy Max Glass kept the Spartans on the alert during his entire stay in the game with his off-tackle slants and fast end runs, and Metzger had the secondary always ready for his bullet-like passes. Joe (Picture) Frame played a whale of a game at end and scored both touchdowns for the Aztec team.

Walt McPherson showed up well for San Jose at fullback and packed the ball with consistent gains, aside from his accurate passing and lengthy punting.

LATE SPURT

The entire squad somewhat made up during the second half what it lacked the first, but despite several scoring chances, the San Diego outfit seemed to clamp down

REJUVENATED STATERS PREP FOR CLASH WITH POWERFUL BEAR SQUAD

Rejuvenated by their sensational win over the Stanford Indians at Palo Alto Saturday morning, the San Jose State soccer eleven is entering this week's preparation for the clash with the University of California Bears at Berkeley this Saturday with plenty of vim and vigor.

Although several of the Spartans have been laid up with injuries, only George Hogan, suffering from a broken blood vessel, is definitely counted out of the picture for this week's conflict with the Bears, co-leaders in the Northern California Conference.

By their win the San Jose eleven jumped into a tie with Stanford and San Mateo, each who has copied one victory. State will still be an underdog to the California squad but the morale needs only another win to be decidedly on the upswing.

INTRA-MURAL SPORTS

By WALTER HECOX

Mel Isenberger, formerly a regular on last year's varsity, chalked up a convincing goose egg for Main's Prune Pickers last night, while Martin Olavarri, 123 pound wrestling star, contributed the ten points that spelled victory for the same team over the Fowlers in the Intramural basketball tournament last night.

Orchids are in order for the Fowlers, who in spite of all setbacks have been out tossing the ball around each time they have been scheduled to appear. Intramural teams with the fighting spirit of the Fowlers seem to be rare in this basketball tourney.

The Sequoians, and the boys from Hayward, who were scheduled to tussle last night, got together and decided that if neither team showed up no disastrous results would appear for either team.

If the number of entries in the intramural golf continues at its present rate, qualifying rounds will not be necessary. Only five future golf champs have signed up to and stop the threat.

The Border city team now goes into the last half of its schedule with a clean slate and will battle for the Southern Conference title, while the Spartans, with half of their games down in the books, will face four more opening whistles to determine whether the season can be called a success.

STANFORD WATERDOGS ENTERTAIN SPARTANS AT FARM TOMORROW

Although the San Jose Varsity water polo team has had easy going so far this season they will buck up against some very stiff competition in the form of the Stanford Varsity waterdogs tomorrow afternoon in the Encina pools.

Coach Charles Walker predicts that his team will go down to honorable defeat by a mere 15 or so points. That was before the Indian team walloped the Trojan Varsity 9 to 1. However the game is not to be played until tomorrow so why call the score now?

Even though their older brothers are listed for defeat the Frosh septet will be out to gather one win for the local institution. Walker says that the Indian junior varsity will have extended themselves quite a bit if they intend to win from Savage, Wempe, Grisell and Co.

Incidentally it is expected that Frank Savage, ace forward for the baby Spartans will be back at his position after a two week's vacation on the bench. The forward trio of Savage and the two Wempes are expected to make quite a lot of trouble for the Redskin goalie.

The two Spartan teams have met defeat only once this season, that with the Olympic Club and they are trying in a big way to keep their record clear for the rest of the season.

CLAIRE WEHRSTEDT SCORES NET VICTORY

Defeating each of five opponents with a score of 6-0, 6-0, Claire Wehrstedt, sophomore, won the championship title in the women's singles week-end tournament held Friday, Saturday and Sunday on the campus courts and at the San Jose Tennis Club.

Miss Wehrstedt, who was outstanding last year in tennis tournaments, played the five matches without dropping a single game and without meeting any opponents who gave her serious trouble.

Edith Norton, the biggest threat for the title, defaulted in the third round due to an injured foot. Edna Nisson, member of the San Jose Tennis club, also defaulted in the third round leaving the field fairly clear for Miss Wehrstedt.

The rest of the lads will have to hurry, as there are only five days left.

The Wolves will hit the trail again tonight, this time in search of Donadio's highly touted cagers, while the Spartan Daily's crack quintet will tangle with the Japanese club.

This is the last week to drop courses.

Growth Of San Jose College Measured By Additions Of New Reference Books To Library

Aviation Encyclopedia Bought For Flying Club By School

With the purchase of a new experimental plane by the aviation department, the growth of the aviation section in the college library has been rapid. This growth has led to the purchase of a new "Encyclopedia of Aviation", which will be placed in the reference room of the library for use of all students.

In addition to the usual alphabetical encyclopedia arrangement of material concerning aviation, an illustrated section is shown as well as a biographical portion in which are listed persons prominent in aviation.

ALSO REFERENCE

The aviation encyclopedia was purchased in addition to several other books of wide fields, which will aid in much reference work.

"Who's Who in Latin America", a book recently published by the Stanford University Press, is the second addition and is a biographical handbook of outstanding citizens of Hispanic America. It contains an alphabetical list of names as well as a grouping of names under each country of South America. It is edited by Dr. Martin of Stanford.

PROVERBS

Added to the library's collection of books of proverbs, quotations, and illusions is "The Oxford Dictionary of English Proverbs". This dictionary's treatment of proverbs is similar to that employed by the Oxford dictionary of the English language in that it is etymological.

Not only does it list the proverb with its current meaning, but as far as possible it attempts to show how the proverb has varied in structure, wording, and meaning throughout time.

"Speech Index" has been added because in all libraries there is a constant demand for help in preparing speeches for many occasions and finding examples for models. This index lists entries by authors, subjects, and types of speeches and indicates the source, in which they are to be found.

NEW ATLAS

"The Citizen's Atlas of the World" by John Bartholomew of Edinburgh is a very easily used atlas by a famous map maker. It contains maps showing universal weather conditions, ocean currents, celestial hemispheres as well as political and geographical maps.

These new acquisitions may be consulted in the Reference Department of the College Library.

Junior-Sophs' Dance Bids Go Fast First Day

Idea Attracts Press Association; On Broadcast

Students who attend the Sophomore-Junior dance will be among the privileged to attend an affair which is attracting nation-wide attention. The Associated Press has taken up the colored-hair idea and flashed it over the entire nation.

The first bids were put on sale at the controller's office yesterday morning and the demands of the students exhausted the supply. This morning more are to be obtainable, and the students who desire them are urged to act immediately.

Members of the dance committee will be selling them also.

Ben Melzer and Don Walker, respectively presidents of the Sophomore and Junior classes expressed themselves as delighted over the sale of bids, and predict a fine crowd for the dance which is to be held in the men's gym Halloween night.

Plans for the dance have been completed, and committee heads declare that it will be the finest campus dance to date.

"This optimistic outlook is prompted by the remarkable cooperation given by members of both classes," declared George Hogan, chairman of the dance committee.

Sigma Kappa Delta meets today in Publications' office at 11:30.

With a $1400 airplane belonging to the San Jose State Flying club, Hillis Ashworth, young San Jose State college aviator, was again compelled to make a forced landing in Grand Island, Nebraska, because of terrific head winds and rain.

Ashworth stated in a telegram that as soon as weather permits he will take off for Cheyenne, the next objective of his flight.

According to reports, this is the second time that lady luck has shunned Ashworth. The first time compelled him to land in Cleveland, Ohio.
